Details of the program
It is imperative to arrive in Sydney on Sunday. Then we will bring you to your hostel in the city centre; 7 nights of accommodation are included in the program fee in Sydney. You will take part in your welcome orientation with our Australian organisation in Sydney during this first week. On the following Sunday you will travel to spend one night in a hostel close to the ranch course location (the train trip and this hostel night are also included in the program fee). On Monday morning you will start the farm training course. You will attend a 5-day farm training course. During the week, the team will talk to you about the skills you have gained and inform you about the latest job vacancies. A job is not guaranteed, but the ranch team will do their best to match you with a suitable job. If placed, please note that Farm work is enjoyable, but it is hard work so be prepared! The farms are often located in remote places. If you are not placed into farm/harvest work straight after the course, you will still have the full support of your 12 month work and travel membership to search for other types of work. This program is a great opportunity to enjoy the Australian outback, and learn new skills (horsemanship, sheep shearing, cattle mustering, bush skills, and much more). You will also have the opportunity to work in other industries after your farm work. You can contact our Sydney and/or Melbourne offices for help with this as part of your 12 month work and travel experience/membership.

	All evenings are around the campfire with open-air camp oven cooked meals. What to bring: <ul style="list-style-type: none">* a sleeping bag* a towel* your toiletries* a hat or cap* sunscreen & insect repellent in the warmer months* swimmers* a raincoat* riding boots (optional)* work clothes* money for dinner at the pub on the Friday night and also extra money if you wish to purchase a USB ($25) at the end of the week that has photos of the school week or any extra snacks, such as chocolates/drinks/icy poles. If you don't have work clothes for the job: we go to a second hand store on Monday morning; you can also borrow boots (if you don't have them) – but there are limited sizes available. A public phone card is required to make outgoing calls from the school as there is no mobile phone coverage. We do not guarantee a job at the end of the course but we will help you and give you the best opportunity to find farm work.
